Important Information about College Welfare and Wellbeing Support

Dear Murray Edwards Fresher,

Hello, my name is Sooz, I am the Head of Wellbeing in the College. I am making contact prior to your arrival to give you some information about welfare and wellbeing support in College. We have a great welfare team at Murray Edwards, who are here to support you throughout your time with us.

Tutors

During your studies at Murray Edwards, you will be assigned a personal Tutor, who will be your advisor for welfare-related, personal and financial matters. Tutors are academics who are not involved in any of your teaching. The name of your Tutor will be sent to you soon, and you will be introduced to them on the day of your arrival (at 3pm on the day of your arrival).

Head of Wellbeing

I am available to meet to talk with you about your wellbeing and can offer 1-to-1 support. I can also advise and help you access further support, if needed, in college or the wider university. My office is in the Wellbeing Centre on the lower ground floor of Fountain Court. Please do pop by if you would like to chat.

College Nurse

We have a college nurse who is available to help you with medical advice and a wide range of health needs. You can make an appointment through the college website or by email.

We will contact you again in September. If you have any questions, please contact the Tutorial Office. It is important that we have the correct contact details for you.
